

CELEBRATION OF NEWBORN CARE WEEK-2015

Theme : "Quality Improvement by Data Keeping"

Newborn Care Week-2015 was celebrated by Indian Academy of Paediatrics, Ganjam District Branch from 15.11.2015 to 21.11.2015 with enormous enthusiasm. Most of the IAP Member of our branch participated with active involvement.

16.11.2015 (Monday)

Newborn Care week celebration was inaugurated in the ICEC, Dr. Bijaya Kumar Panigrahy, President, IAP Ganjam organised the event. Hall of Office of CDMO, Ganjam. 80 A.N.M. students participated CDMO, Dr. Mrityunjaya Mishra was the Chief Guest. ADMO (FW) Dr. Sukanti Mishra (O&G Specialist), Dr. Pitambar Dash, ADMO(PH), Dr. Saroj Kumar Mishra, ADMO (Medical), Dr. Suresh Chandra Samant (DSMO), Dr. Uma Shankar Mishra, DMO, Dr. Geetanjali Das, DLO, Dr. Bipra Charan Bhuyan, Sr. Paediatric Specialist, were among the distinguished guests. Dr. Mrityunjaya Mishra, CDMA addressed the gathering and highlighted the importance of essential Newborn Care in brining down the neonatal mortality in our country and our state as well. Dr. Saroj Kumar Mishra narrated his experience regarding the ignorance of mothers regarding neonatal care. He addressed the ANM students and advised them to learn the essential newborn care and utilise the knowledge in the practical field. Other guests also stressed that the need of the hour is to reduce neonatal mortality at any cost. Dr. B.Ch. Bhuyan explained all the components of essential newborn care in details. Dr. Bijaya Kumar Panigrahy, President, IAP, Ganjam conducted a quiz programme on newborn care NMR and them of this year. Prizes were distributed to the participants who answered correctly. Then the meeting was dissolved by giving vote of thanks.

17.11.2015 (Tuesday)

Newborn Care Week was celebrated in the premises of Sick Neonatal Care Unit of M.K.C.G. Medical College Hospital, Berhampur. Under the leadership of Dr. B. Maheswar Rao, Treasurer of IAP Ganjam Branch.

18.11.2015 (Wednesday)

Newborn Care Week was celebrated in the premises of City Hospital, Berhampur in the SAB Room of Obstetric Ward. O&G Specialists, Ayush Doctors and Staff Nurses participated in the programme. Dr. Bijaya Kumar Panigrahy presented the Powerpoint Projection on present neonatal health scenario, IMR, NMR and the recent strategy to bring down neonatal mortality in our country. Then Dr. Panigrahy made demo on the mannequin regarding Resuscitation of Newborn to the Ayush Doctors and Staff Nurses.

19.11.2015

NBC Week was celebrated in the premises of Christian Hospital, Berhampur under the Chairmanship of its Director, Dr. Mrinal Kanti Nanda. The programme was coordinated by Dr. K. Roshan Kumar, Secretary of IAP, Ganjam Branch. Senior Paediatricians, Dr. U.S. Murty, Dr. Sushant Kumar Panda, Dr. Bipin Bihari Padhi graced the occasion. 90 Nursing students and the faculties of Nursing school participated in the programme. Dr. Bijaya Kumar Panigrahy, President, IAP, Ganjam gave a power point presentation on present neonatal health status and the key interventions to reduce NMR in our country and the importance of data keeping in improving the quality of rendering health services. Dr. Susant panda and Dr. K. Roshan Kumar, addressed the gathering and advised the nursing students to learn newborn care thoroughly and utilize it in their practical field.

20.11.2015 (Friday)

Newborn Care Weeks celebrated in Hotel Bhubaneswari Classic, Berhampur. 40 IAP members (Pediatricians) participated in the programme. Secretary, Dr. K. Roshan Kumar welcomed the gathering and explained the aim of the CME on the explained the aim of the CME on the occasion of Newborn Care Week celebration. Senior most pediatricians and pioneer of "NALS on WHEELS" concept in imparting training on neonatal care, Prof. P. Suvarna Devi was the guest of honour. She briefly narrated the history of development of neonatal care services in our state. Later on Dr. Bijaya Kumar Panigrahy, President, IAP Ganjam, gave a PowerPoint presentation on the theme "Quality Improvement by Data Keeping" and on INAP (India Newborn action Plan). He discussed on the present data on NMR and the strategies and goal of Govt. of India to bring down NMR to single digit by 2030.

21.11.2015

Newborn Care Week was celebrated in the premises of school of Nursing of M.K.C.G. Medical College Hospital, Berhampur. Approximately 200 nursing students participated in the programme. Dr. B. Maheswar Rao, Treasurer, IAP, Ganjam organized the programme with active cooperation of faculties, Senior Residents, Post-Graduate students of Department of Pediatrics and the Principal and faculties of Nursing School. Pediatricians Dr. U.S. Murty, Dr. Bijaya Kumar Panigrahy, Dr. Budhia Majhi were the distinguished guests of the occasion.

Debate competition on the “Essential Newborn Care” was held among the Nursing students. Ten students participated in the contest. Prizes were distributed to the winners (1st Prize - Subhashree Barik, 2nd Prize – Monalisha Dwibedy, 3rd Prize – Lipika Panda, 4th prize – Pritipragnya Routray, 5th Prize – Anuradha Priyadarsini). Later on Quiz on newborn care was conducted by Dr. Bijaya Kumar Panigrahy and prizes were given to the participants who answered the questions. At last Dr. Budhia Majhi, narrated in detail all the aspects of neonatal care and what are the roles of Nursing students. Dr. U.S. Murty stressed on exclusive breast feeding and health education to parents regarding newborn care. Principal (I/C) – Samarpika Dehuri (M.Sc. Nursing in Pediatrics) summarized the newborn care and advised her students to learn the practical skills on newborn care which will help in bringing down the neonatal mortality rate in the long run.

(Dr. Bijaya Kumar Panigrahy)
President, IAP
Ganjam District Branch

Encl: Photographs of Newborn Care Week Celebration

The IAP Ganjam District Branch conducted an awareness programme among the mothers / grandmother / other attendants at SNCU, M.K.C.G. Medical College Hospital, Berhampur. Around 150 participants participated in the interactive session. This was attended by Dr. Bi8jaya Kumr Panigrahy (President), Dr. K. Roshan Kumar, Secretary, Dr. B. Baheswar Rao, Treasurer. Other members who enlightened the session as Prof. Nirnjan Mohanty. Dr. Prabhakar Mishra, Dr. Narendra Behera, Dr. Sunil Agarwala, Dr. Suresh Samanta, Dr. Budhia Majhi and Dr. S. Malik.

Each one spoke on different subjects varying from Newborn Care to quality improvement by Data Keeping.

The staff sisters took participation in the debate competition on the topic "Quality Improvement by Data Keeping" and prizes distributed.

The IAP members interaction with mothers during the session on Newborn Care tool.

To

Dr. Ashutosh Mohapatra,
Secretary, NNF, Odisha
BHUBANESWAR.

Sub: submission of Report on Newborn Care Week Celebration, 2015.

Dear Dr. Ashutosh Mahapatra,

Greetings from IAP, Ganjam District Branch. First of all, I wish you all the best and grand success of Neocon-2015 under the leadership of your team.

Newborn Care Week-2015 was celebrated from 15.11.2015 to 21.11.2015 by IAP, Ganjam District Branch with full enthusiasm and sincerity. The details of the programme throughout the week along with photographs is enclosed herewith for your reference.

I wish to participate in the competition.

With thanks,

Sincerely yours,

(Dr. Bijaya Kumar Panigrahy)
President, IAP, Ganjam
Berhampur